

International Affairs Cell - Department of Technology (IAC-DOT), Shivaji University, Kolhapur

Greetings from International Affairs Cell - Department of Technology (IAC-DOT) Shivaji University, Kolhapur.

Shivaji University, Kolhapur, Maharashtra, India, is located in the western Maharashtra and is spread on lush green campus of 850 acres. The regional climate is monuments, pleasant and comfortable throughout the year. The University campus is surrounded by historical, ancient heritages and places worth sightseeing. Kolhapur, a renowned city is known for its rich and open culture with good blend of modernization. It is very well connected by air (4 km), rail (5 km) and road and is at approachable distance from Pune (4 hrs.) and Belgaum (2 hrs.). Shivaji University has several International programs in English catering to various educational needs of the society. The University offers Diploma, UG, PG, M.Phil. and Ph.D. programs in various faculties like Science, Technology, Social Sciences, Humanity, Commerce and Management, Law, Arts and Fine Arts with a good blend of interdisciplinary aspects. We have nationally and internationally recognized teaching and research faculty winning academic awards and the faculty publications have significant citation. Index. The University has established strategic partnerships and MoUs with several universities all over the world.

Salient Features of Shivaji University, Kolhapur

- Lush green, beautiful, eco-friendly and clean campus with 24x7 security.
- Wi-Fi campus with comfortable accommodation for 3000+ students.
- Spacious infrastructure for offices, classrooms, reading halls (700 student capacity) and laboratories.
- Excellent central library and e-resources including e-books, e-journals, e-magazines etc.
- Reasonable cost of living with on campus cooking, dining and shopping facility.
- State-of-art instrumental and advanced testing facilities on the campus.
- Reputed faculties involved in competitive projects and cutting edge research activities.
- Lucrative merit based scholarships offered for national and international students.
- International Affairs Cell is supported by experienced staff for single window clearance.
- Well-equipped medical facilities on campus with provision for health insurance scheme of choice.

- Activities for foreign students enabling them to showcase their talent and culture
- University has student facility center.

Kindly visit: <http://www.unishivaji.ac.in> for details.

Objectives of International Affairs Cell - Department of Technology (IAC-DOT)

- To encourage students of Department of Technology to study abroad to gain state of the art Engineering and Technological knowledge.
- To make our students technocrats of International repute and make them global citizens who can bridge different cultures and societies.
- To expose our students to best international practices.
- To encourage and welcome international students to study at Department of Technology, Shivaji University, Kolhapur and to expose them to the diversely rich cultural heritage of Maharashtra and India.
- To foster linkages with international Universities, institutions, government agencies for student and faculty exchange, joint research programs, projects, joint programs such as workshops, seminars, internships etc.